Edward Seymour, 1st Duke of Somerset KG (c. 1500 – 22 January 1552), was Lord Protector of England during part of the Tudor period from 1547 until 1549 during the minority of his nephew, King Edward VI (1547–1553). Despite his popularity with the common people, his policies often angered the gentry and he was overthrown.

Napoleon was born the same year the Republic of Genoa, a former commune of Italy, transferred Corsica to France. The state sold sovereign rights a year before his birth in 1768, and the island was conquered by France during the year of his birth and formally incorporated as a province in 1770, after 500 years under nominal Genoese rule and 14 years of independence.

(ed note: This article was written in 1979 and is admittedly a little dated. But most of it is still true.) The Third Industrial Revolution is going to create two areas of concern and interest to military planners in the next thirty to fifty years. One of these is new technology that will create new problems of defense and military operations.
