The Compromise of 1850 was a package of five separate bills passed by the United States Congress in September 1850, which defused a four-year political confrontation between slave and free states on the status of territories acquired during the Mexican-American War (1846-1848). The compromise, drafted by Whig Senator Henry Clay of Kentucky and brokered by Clay and Democratic Senator ...

To compromise is to make a deal between different parties where each party gives up part of their demand. In arguments, compromise is a concept of finding agreement through communication, through a mutual acceptance of terms often involving variations from an original goal or desires. Extremism is often considered as antonym to compromise, which, depending on context, may be associated with ...

The Missouri Right-to-Farm, Amendment 1 was on the August 5, 2014, primary election ballot in Missouri as a legislatively referred constitutional amendment, where it was approved. A recount was held due to the tight election results, marking the fourth time a statewide recount has occurred in Missouri in the past 20 years. None of these previous recounts overturned the original results, and ...
